CONDITIONAL USE and/or VARIANCE PROCESS

This is to notify you that an application has been made for a Conditional Use and/or Variance, which is a requirement of the Zoning By-Law, and governed by the Planning Act.

THE FOLLOWING POINTS HIGHLIGHT THE PROCESS:

1. Notices are sent to property owners within 100 meters of the affected property, setting out what the applicant is proposing.
2. If you have comments, for or against the application, you may attend the hearing as set out in the notice; and/or.
3. Send a letter to the Eastern Interlake Planning District attention to the Municipal Council as follows:
 - Send by regular mail, hand delivery or by e-mail to the Eastern Interlake Planning District (contact information above in our letterhead).
 - All letters must contain your name(s) and civic address, for a fair portrayal of submissions. Note that submissions are deemed public documents and may be disclosed during the process.
 - Letters shall be received in our office no later than 9:00 a.m. on the day of the hearing. Letters not meeting this minimum time will have to be submitted directly to Council at the hearing.

*Please note that Council is not to be contacted for information regarding this application. They should remain impartial until all information has been submitted and reviewed at the hearing.

4. Council shall then, after all considerations, approve or reject the application.
5. As per the Planning Act the decision of Council is final and is not subject to appeal.

APPLICANT'S PROPOSAL

I am applying for approval to run my home based business. I am an artist that creates art inspired by the lake. I would like to sell my pieces from my home on Weekends from noon until 4:00. I would be running my business seasonally from June until the end of September. We have parking in our driveway and in front of our home.

Thank you for your assistance with this application. I look forward to the meeting on August 12.

RM of Gimli Zoning By-law Excerpts

Part 1: Interpretation

- .72 “Home Occupation” means any business activity which includes manufacturing, sales, a commercial or professional operation, business, service, trade, practice, office or use which is carried on or in or from a dwelling unit and or its permitted accessory buildings, is intended as a profit making operation, is clearly incidental to, accessory to, or secondary to the residential use of the dwelling unit and may expect patrons or clients to attend the location for said goods and/or services. (BL 21-0012 consolidation note: the highlighted word was intended word. See this bylaw -flag for future update.)

3.36 Home Occupations (BL 21-0012)

For the purpose of this By-Law, a Home Occupation has two classifications with respect to requiring a conditional use:

- .1 If patrons and or clients do not attend the location for goods and or service, the Home Occupation would not require conditional use approval.
- .2 If patrons and or clients do attend the location for goods and service, the Home Occupation shall require conditional use approval.

Both classifications may also require a business license from the municipality and both shall:

- .1 Not detract from the neighbourhood;
- .2 Be carried on solely by the members of the family residing in the same dwelling unit; the employment of other persons may be considered on a case-by-case basis, subject to Council's approval;
- .3 In residential zones, have no exterior display, no advertising, no outdoor storage, and no other exterior indication of the home occupation or variation of the residential character of the principal or accessory building, with the exception of one (1) identification sign not exceeding two (2) square feet in area;
- .4 Take up less than fifty percent (50%) of the total floor area in the dwelling unit, but may take up all floor area in a permitted accessory building and/or structure;
- .5 In the opinion of Council, not by reason of the emission of odour, dust, smoke, noise, gas, fumes, cinders, light, vibration, refuse matter or water carried waste become offensive or obnoxious and shall not create a nuisance beyond any site line;
- .6 In the opinion of Council, not cause the generation of undue traffic, parking problems, and congestion in the neighbourhood; and
- .7 Not have yard, garage and/or basement sales and the like more than twice a year.
